As for the vehicles, enchanting Historic models that are the beating heart of the rally, the most important new feature is that the event is now open to World Rally Cars up to 2010, but with the race classes divided between cars up to 2003, and those from 2004 to 2010. #### CELEBRATING FIFTY YEARS OF MARTINI RACING AT RALLYLEGEND

This year, Martini Racing celebrates fifty years of commitment to motorsport and Rallylegend intends to mark the occasion in suitable style, by bringing together the legendary cars and drivers connected to the brand, starting with Miki Biasion, who scored his first world rally title exactly thirty years ago, and extending the celebration to the speed arena, a sector in which Martini Racing has written, and continues to write very important pages. Hence, several top drivers who have made history on the world's racetracks will also be in attendance at Rallylegend.

The public will play a key role in this large-scale celebration. And those who choose to purchase the "All Plus" ticket, as well as having free access to the "Village", special test Grandstands, shuttles, and Rallylegend gadgets, will also be able to enjoy an aperitif each day of the event alongside the great champions, among the dream cars inside the Rallylegend lounge.

NON JUST SPONSORS, BUT PASSIONATE AND ACTIVE PARTNERS

Rallylegend can boast some very important relationships. Because its sponsors, within the event, are not just a static presence but contribute actively to the show, involving the public and teams with many exciting initiatives and gadgets. Passionate partners, many of whom have, over the years, consolidated their relationships with the San Marino event and the enthusiastic visitors from all over Europe.

One such example is Eberhard&Co: the Swiss watch manufacturer is a punctual Rallylegend travel companion once again this year, also taking on the role of Official Time Keeper. Multi-titled world champion Miki Biasion, the firm's Brand Ambassador, will be in attendance, available for a special autograph session, while the brand's watches will "crown" the great champions of Rallylegend at the end of the race, as is now tradition.

Another example is Shell, present with the Elix Ultra brand and a stand packed with surprises, such as last year's Ferrari SF70H. And Coyote, the legal speed trap warning device, the staff of which will be active inside the "Village", along with Pirelli that, as well as supplying tyres to those signed up to Rallylegend, will also arrange initiatives and meetings with the fans in its dedicated area.
