

PRESS RELEASE nr. 8

2nd October 2020

ADRENALINE AND "DRIFTS" WITH THE LEGEND SHOW.
KEN BLOCK, ONCE AGAIN, JUDGED THE MOST SPECTACULAR

Republic of San Marino. Revised and corrected, but with the usual, overflowing adrenaline content and "drifts" at the two roundabouts in the route, "Legend Show" opened the Rallylegend with engines running yesterday evening. Fireworks in and out the course, literally, since a fireworks display celebrated - together with an orderly and enthusiastic audience - the podium of the Legend Show.

Once again, like last year, it was Ken Block, with his "oversized" Ford Escort Cosworth and his faithful Alessandro Gelsomino at his side, who won the prize of the most spectacular, in a specialty in which he has few rivals around the world. In any case, Adrien Formaux, a young French driver from the M-Sport orbit, with Renaud Jamoul at his side, for the first time at the wheel of the Ford Fiesta WRC "Plus", set a trend. Paolo Diana closed the podium, another great protagonist of spectacular driving, together with Francesco Fresu, with his "bodybuilding" Fiat 131 Racing.

"Legend Show is great fun, fantastic and engaging for those who drive and for those who watch - stated the winner Ken Block, a true specialist in this kind of performances - and we have worked hard to put on a great show".
